EXHIBIT A

Artis Ellis

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

1

ARTIS ELLIS :

Plaintiff, :

VS.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION : C. A. No.

FOR FOREIGN MEDICAL : 4:14-cv-02126

GRADUATES, :

Defendant. :

VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF ARTIS ELLIS

Called as a witness by the Defendant, taken before Peggy Ann Antone, a Certified Shorthand Reporter in and for the State of Texas, on May 11, 2016, beginning at 9:51 a.m., at the offices of Kennard Richard P.C., 2603 Augusta Drive, Suite 1450, Houston, Texas, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DepoTexas, Inc.

Artis Ellis

	206		208
1	Misleading as worded. And to the extent that it calls	1	Q. Any type of a doctor doctor's note, anything
2	for a legal conclusion.	2	of any sort that would say I can come back to work but I
3	Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) October 22nd, 2012, or any	3	need X, Y and Z, you never had a physician do that, did
4	day thereafter prior to your termination, did you ever	4	you?
15:53 5	call one of your physicians and ask for a doctor's note	15:56 5	A. The physicians knew that I had a a patch.
6	to approve FMLA leave?	6	My eyes were were crossed. Betty knew. Sharon knew
7	A. No, because I was out on administrative leave.	7	I mean, Nancy and Chris was there. They saw it. They
8	Q. Okay. And during that time after October 22nd,	8	knew.
	2012, and thereafter, you were able and willing to work;	9	Q. But did you ever have a doctor's note saying
15:53 10	correct? You were in a physical condition such that you	15:56 10	anything to that effect?
11	could work; correct?	11	MR. KENNARD: Objection. Asked and
12	A. Repeat the question one more time.	12	answered.
13	Q. October 22nd, 2012, when you returned to work	13
14	on full release, you, from that point forward, were able	14	MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, she actually hasn't answered it.
15:54 15	•	15:56 15
16	to work; correct?	16	MR, KENNARD: You asked she's answered
17	MR. KENNARD: Hold on. Objection. Assumes	17	it. You don't like the way that she's answered it. I
18	facts. Misstates and to the extent it misstates	18	trust that she's answering it to the best of her
19	previous testimony. And misleading as worded.	İ	ability. But asking the same question over and over
15:54 20	MS. O'DRISCOLL: How does that misstate	19 15:56 20	again doesn't necessarily mean that she's going to give previous testimony?	1	you some response.
21	MR. KENNARD: Can you repeat back the	21	MS. O'DRISCOLL: No. Asking a question to
22	question, please? And to the extent that it does, but	22	get an answer to the question I'm asking, not the
23	go ahead and read back the question.	23	question that she wants it to be, but an answer to the
24	THE REPORTER: QUESTION: "October 22nd,	24	question I am asking.
15:54 25	2012, when you returned to work on full release, you,	15:57 25	MR. KENNARD: If she
the simulation of the second s	207		209
1	from that point forward, were able to work; correct?"	1	MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's all I'm asking for.
2	MR. KENNARD: So you by stating that she	2	MR. KENNARD: Well, the problem is
3	• • •		, .
	was on full release, she testified earlier that one	3	MS. O'DRISCOLL: There's two different
4	was on full release, she testified earlier that one doctor had given her a note, but that others had not	3 4	MS. O'DRISCOLL: There's two different MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same
4	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not		MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same
4	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave	4	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.
4 15:54 5	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're	4 15:57 5	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not
4 15:54 5 6	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some	4 15:57 5	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.
4 15:54 5 6 7	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which	4 15:57 5 6 7	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans	15:57 5 6 7 8	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or	15:57 5 6 7 8	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the	15:57 5 6 7 8 9	MR. KENNARD: — I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or	4 15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10	MR. KENNARD: — I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have	4 15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans	4 15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it	4 15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 15	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates	4 15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 16 17	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is
4 15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 15 16 17 18	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not
15:54 5 6 6 7 8 9 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 15 16 17 18 19	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you were physically able to work October 22nd and forward?	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not getting an answer to my question. She can give whatever
15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 15 16 17 18 19 15:55 20	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you were physically able to work October 22nd and forward?  A. With accommodation.	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18 19	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not getting an answer to my question. She can give whatever is a truthful honest answer
15:54	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you were physically able to work October 22nd and forward?  A. With accommodation.  Q. And you never asked your your physician to	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18 19 15:57 20 21	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not getting an answer to my question. She can give whatever is a truthful honest answer
15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 15 16 17 18 19 15:55 20 21	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you were physically able to work October 22nd and forward?  A. With accommodation.  Q. And you never asked your your physician to sign a document saying that you needed an accommodation;	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18 19 15:57 20 21 22	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not getting an answer to my question. She can give whatever is a truthful honest answer  MR. KENNARD: Sure.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: In front of a judge and a
15:54 5 6 7 8 9 15:55 10 11 12 13 14 15:55 15 16 17 18 19 15:55 20 21 22 23	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you were physically able to work October 22nd and forward?  A. With accommodation.  Q. And you never asked your your physician to sign a document saying that you needed an accommodation; correct?	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18 19 15:57 20 21 22 23	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not getting an answer to my question. She can give whateve is a truthful honest answer  MR. KENNARD: Sure.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: In front of a judge and a jury, and that's all I want.
15:54	doctor had given her a note, but that others had not released her, one; two, and when you talk about leave return, and as I've objected in other questions, you're inferring that and trying to get her to reach some legal conclusion that FMLA is the only vehicle by which to get additional leave. As you know, the Americans with Disabilities Act provides for additional leave or additional time off as an accommodation in the workplace. So whether it was she asked for FMLA or not does not necessarily mean that she couldn't have asked for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act. So to that extent, it potentially calls for a legal conclusion and misstates previous testimony.  Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) I'm simply asking if you were physically able to work October 22nd and forward?  A. With accommodation.  Q. And you never asked your your physician to sign a document saying that you needed an accommodation;	15:57 5 6 7 8 9 15:57 10 11 12 13 14 15:57 15 16 17 18 19 15:57 20 21 22	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question over and over again.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: That's because she's not answering the question.  MR. KENNARD: Okay. I don't know what to tell you, but you can't keep asking the same question over and over again. If you want to phrase it in a way that she might understand it better or ask it in a different way, I mean, that's fine. But the same question over and over again until you get the answer that you think she should be giving, well, that's not allowed for by the rules.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: Well, that's two different things, Alfonso, and you know that. That's why this is taking so long, because I ask a question and I'm not getting an answer to my question. She can give whateve is a truthful honest answer  MR. KENNARD: Sure.  MS. O'DRISCOLL: In front of a judge and a

Artis Ellis

	210		212
1	answer.	1	A. I did.
2	MR. KENNARD: And she's been she's under	2	Q. And, in fact, did you tell the Texas Workforce
3	oath. And if you have any reason to believe that she's	3	Commission on your online entries that you were ready
4	being untruthful, that's certainly something that can be	4	and able to work?
15:57 5	addressed at some later date. But for my purposes and	15:59 5	A. I did.
6	for the purpose of my objection, which is strictly that	6	Q. If we go back to that big packet that we had,
7	it's been asked and answered, that's all my objection	7	if you could look at ECFMG/Ellis 542, and that is
8		8	Exhibit 25.
9	is.	9
15:58 10	MS. O'DRISCOLL: Okay. Okay.	16:00 10	And if you look at the top, it says, "Texas
	MR. KENNARD: I'm hearing the same question		Workforce Commission Internet Claim Certification," and
11	over and over again. I'd be remiss not to object. I	11	it has your name, Artis Ellis
12	would probably	12	A. On 542?
13	MS. O'DRISCOLL: I understand. I don't	13	Q. Yes.
14	want to use any more of my time on this.	14	A. I'm looking at 4.
15:58 15	MR. KENNARD: Or can ask it a different	16:00 15	Q. Yes, 542.
16	way.	16	Is this a document that that you filled
17	MS. O'DRISCOLL: I've asked it 800	17	out on at multiple for different time periods for
18	different ways.	18	the online with the TWC?
19	Q. (BY MS. O'DRISCOLL) Ms. Ellis, did you wear a	19	A. Yes.
15:58 20	patch to work on October 22nd, 2012?	16:01 20	Q. And at the top it says, "Texas Workforce
21	A. Yes, I did.	21	Commission Internet Claim Certification," and it has
22	Q. And did you have it on during these meetings	22	your name, "Artis Ellis," and then "Claim Week Dated:
23	that you had with Ms. Ambrose, Mr. Paul, and Mr. LeHew?	23	11-10-12, 11-17-12, Claim Period Covers 11-4-12 through
24	A. Yes, I did.	24	11-17-12."
15:58 25	Q. How long after that day on October 22nd did you	16:02 25	So this is this is for the period of an ann an Air ann an Air ann an Air ann an Air an Air an	211		213
1		1
2	continue to wear an eye patch?	2	time shortly just right after you were terminated
3	A. To the best of my knowledge, probably about six	3	on on November 1st; correct?
4	months.	4	A. That is correct.
15:58 5	Q. And did you wear an eye patch every day?	16:02 5	Q. It says, "Initial Claim 11-4-12.
6	A. Yes.		"Filing date, 11-18," and then there's a
	Q. And if it varied, you can say, but would it	6	series of questions. And if you look at question number
7	is this something that you wear all day long or only	7	5, "Were you physically able to work each day?" And you
8	when you do certain activities? Can you give us a sense	8	checked, "Yes"; is that correct?
9	as to how long you would wear it?	9	A. Yes.
15:58 10	A. For the most part, all day.	16:02 10	Q. And number 6, "Were you available to accept
11	Q. All day every day.	11	full-time work for all of the days and hours required
12	A. Yes.	12	for the type of work that you are seeking, if it had
	Q. For six months.	13	been offered?" And you checked, "Yes"; is that correct?
13	A. Yes.	14	A. Yes.
13		16:02 15	Q. And you had to fill this out for for a
14	Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that	100	Q. This you had to him this out for
14		16	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.
14 15:59 15	Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that		- · ·
14 15:59 15 16	Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.	16	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.
14 15:59 15 16 17	Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.  A. Yes.	16	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box
14 15:59 15 16 17 18	<ul> <li>Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.</li> <li>A. Yes.</li> <li>Q. And did you in any way see that wearing an eye</li> </ul>	16 17 18	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box saying, no, that you weren't able to work?  A. No.
14 15:59 15 16 17 18 19	<ul> <li>Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.</li> <li>A. Yes.</li> <li>Q. And did you in any way see that wearing an eye patch was going to impact your job duties at all as center manager?</li> </ul>	16 17 18 19	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box saying, no, that you weren't able to work?  A. No.  Q. Okay. Do you recall what day you stopped
14 15:59 15 16 17 18 19	<ul> <li>Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.</li> <li>A. Yes.</li> <li>Q. And did you in any way see that wearing an eye patch was going to impact your job duties at all as center manager?</li> <li>A. Maybe using a computer or the lighting.</li> </ul>	16 17 18 19 16:03 20	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box saying, no, that you weren't able to work?  A. No.  Q. Okay. Do you recall what day you stopped receiving short-term disability from Sun?
14 15:59 15 16 17 18 19 15:59 20 21	<ul> <li>Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.</li> <li>A. Yes.</li> <li>Q. And did you in any way see that wearing an eye patch was going to impact your job duties at all as center manager?</li> <li>A. Maybe using a computer or the lighting.</li> <li>Q. Anything else?</li> </ul>	16 17 18 19 16:03 20 21 22	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box saying, no, that you weren't able to work?  A. No.  Q. Okay. Do you recall what day you stopped receiving short-term disability from Sun?  A. I do not.
14 15:59 15 16 17 18 19 15:59 20 21 22 23	<ul> <li>Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.</li> <li>A. Yes.</li> <li>Q. And did you in any way see that wearing an eye patch was going to impact your job duties at all as center manager?</li> <li>A. Maybe using a computer or the lighting.</li> <li>Q. Anything else?</li> <li>A. Not that I can think of.</li> </ul>	16 17 18 19 16:03 20 21 22 23	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box saying, no, that you weren't able to work?  A. No.  Q. Okay. Do you recall what day you stopped receiving short-term disability from Sun?  A. I do not.  Q. Do you recall if you received it right up until
14 15:59 15 16 17 18 19 15:59 20 21 22	<ul> <li>Q. And this was a result of of the surgery that you had had.</li> <li>A. Yes.</li> <li>Q. And did you in any way see that wearing an eye patch was going to impact your job duties at all as center manager?</li> <li>A. Maybe using a computer or the lighting.</li> <li>Q. Anything else?</li> </ul>	16 17 18 19 16:03 20 21 22	period of time while you were seeking unemployment.  Do you ever remember checking the box saying, no, that you weren't able to work?  A. No.  Q. Okay. Do you recall what day you stopped receiving short-term disability from Sun?  A. I do not.